SOUL ESSENCES

Combinations of flower essences for the soul.

This is a new series of combination flower essences that have to do with the connection, growth and development of the soul. What is the difference with these remedies and the other flower essences? A brief explanation of the difference between mind and soul is therefore important. The spirit, the breath, is the power that brings the body, the material, to life. It is just like your phone: when there is no battery in it, it is a dead thing you cannot do anything with. The battery, the mind, is needed to bring the phone, the body, to life. The two together therefore form a trinity. The body that has life. The body therefore consists of the components light and breath = breath that together form the unity, life.

The soul, on the other hand, is the lore of the experiences that a person has experienced from many lifetimes and has shaped him/her. That is why we call someone who has experienced a lot, an old soul. However, the soul can be divided into a male and female parts. The male are the experiences in the outside world and the female is what has been experienced in the emotional world. Together they form a unity again: god the father and the divine mother. (It seems that every nation honors its own divine mother, such as Isis, Shakti, Lakshmi, Kali, Kuan Yin and Mother Mary. But in fact they are all the embodiments of the same divine mother.) The divine father and divine mother are the areas where all experiences are stored from old lives. These areas connect with Akasha, and it is the area where an exchange of souls takes place.

The soul combinations focus then on deep and old experiences and rebalance thus the stuck and deeply rooted patterns. The "ordinary" flower essences are therefore more focused on the supplements of the mind, the feelings and the imbalances in daily life.

GROUP SOUL – Groepsziel

This is a combination made from the flower essences: Tansy, Goldenrod, Motherwort, Borage, Living Star Light, Terra Extra, Trumpet Vine.

The combination Group Soul works on the group and the group process. An important remedy for this time, in which many people no longer feel connected to others. This remedy goes beyond the group and goes to the core, the soul of the problem. A good essence when you are afraid that you are not understood. Particularly good to use when giving a course or lecture. Also good in animals when there are conflicts in the group.

PRIMAL SOUL – Oerziel (2016)

This is a combination made from the flower essences: Earth Protection, Cell Energy, Angel Portal, Living Star Light.

An important combination to reconnect with your soul, especially when you no longer feel at home on earth, because you have lost the original connection with your soul. This combination gives security and gives you the confidence you need to reconnect with the original power of your original source. It puts you back in the direction of your original choice of your soul, what you need for your manifestation on earth.

SOUL DEVELOPMENT – Zielsontplooiing (2016)

This is a combination made from the flower essences: Protection, Divine Angel, Angel and Lemurian Portal, Impatiens, The Spiritual Path.

A deep working combination for the development and growth of your soul, especially when you have been looking for a new opportunity to grow for a long time. The most important step when you have a good connection to your soul, is your expansion and growth. To make this step, you must be well protected and old restrictions regarding spiritual growth needs to be removed. It helps you to make a connection with paradise (Lemuria).

The experience of Mrs. K.J: The Soul Development gives, in my case, courage and decisiveness. If you have been hesitating for a while and do not want to take any further steps by thinking rationally, then this combination will ensure that the feeling is so overwhelming that you cannot do more than move forward. Going your own way. In my case, this meant that after 12.5 years of working at a university of applied sciences I resigned and have now started my own practice. There is no way back and the decision was not safe, but the right one.

SOUL COMFORT – Zielentroost (2017)

This is a combination that is made from the flower essences: Divine Love, Coprinus Auricomus, Borage, Love, Living Star Light, Snowdrop and Star of Bethlehem

When the tears fall short and the pain can no longer be carried, Soul Comfort softens and makes you regain your strength. Despite the pain you continue. Helps not only to let go of the pain and grief of this moment, but it also soothes the pain that has long been present in the soul. Gives softness in the heart and breaks the wall around it. Also for solving grief in the family line, for the pain of unrecognized children, in attachment disorder.

SOUL FREEDOM – Zielsvrijheid (2018)

This is a combination made from the flower essences: Orchid, Red Poppy, Trumpet Vine, Cell-Energy, Peppermint and Children's Vortex.

This combination gives you the freedom to be there from your soul. To trust that you have all the freedom you give yourself. To let go of the duality and it ensures that you can connect with the unique truth of your soul. The Soul Freedom reinforces your memory of who you really are. To be able to put yourself down in the here and now in a powerful and clear way, with clarity and clear choices.

SOUL CREATION - Zielscreatie (2018)

This is a combination that is made from the flower essences: Earth Creation and Earth Vortex with White Angel.

Soul Creation takes you out of the duality, struggle, obligations, and control. It makes sure that you no longer think of problems but shifts your focus to your possibilities. It lets you start the new from an inner strength and an inner balance. It gives you a powerful core, strengthens responsibility and makes you confident. You can compare it to a hurricane, where you yourself are in the middle and everything around you is moving, but that nothing touches you and you can observe it from the core, the inner silence.

SOUL JOY - Zielsvreugde (2019)

Soul Joy is a combination that is made from the flower essences: California Poppy, Rainbow, Borage, Living Star Light, Pear, Smooth Hawksbeard.

When the power is lacking to be yourself, because old pain keeps you from showing who you are. The cause of this may be that you are hampered by family patterns or by pain or sadness from childhood. Soul Joy assists in bringing you back in touch with who you really are and allows you to return to oneness within yourself. It fills you with joy and makes you whole.

SOUL MANIFESTATION - Zielsmanifestatie (2019)

Soul Manifestation is combination that is made from the flower essences: Primal Soul, Cell-Energy, Clematis and Divine Angel.

Soul Manifestation assists you with your manifestation on earth. When you lack the power to manifest on earth what is important for your soul. It works to bring out your authenticity, your true, actual creature power from a soul level. Soul Manifestation helps in connecting every cell of your being with the Universe and allows you to stand powerfully on earth through which you can continue your own Path of Light

Make your choice by closing your eyes and thinking about what your soul needs to develop. Then open your eyes and choose the first photo that appeals to you. Then read the text in this brochure.
